Pastel and Mixed Media Storytelling 5-day Retreat

“Many of us who've spent years learning the craft and art of using the pastel medium have gotten to the point that we wonder what happened to our creativity? This retreat will be focused on recovering a sense of wonder and discovery-- “beginner's mind,” if you will, that we may have lost along the way. Dawn has spent the past 5 years since writing her book, Pastel Innovations, pursuing new ways of combining the medium of pastel with mixed media to re-discover the storyteller in each of us. If you've been wanting to play and engage your imagination, this special 12-person retreat is for you!” - Dawn Emerson
