encaustic 101 Workshop ~ Bootcamp ~

Hot Wax Painting

Beginner to Moderate Experience

Join instructor Kelly Milukas for a fun and informative 2 1/2 day workshop open to all levels, but the main focus will be introductory, covering the basics. Best for those who are relatively new to the medium, looking for an uncomplicated overview of setting up a safe studio, current best practices, painting and fusing encaustic layers, and use of mark making tools, but equally beneficial for those with some experience who would like a refresher and some painting time. Daily demonstrations and instructor-led exercises, and afternoons will be a time for students to work freely on projects of their own and receive 1:1, and group feedback technique.

Participants will be encouraged to work at an individual pace and can also expect to create a small encaustic series of representative exercises in a fun and convivial studio environment. This fast-paced workshop will introduce the necessary skills and knowledge to make encaustic part of your creative process.

We'll be painting with high-octane instruments, and brushes from a molten wax palette, it is truly an outstanding journey in art making!
